

Talk to me
Tell me how it feels to be misunderstood
Talk to me
Explain to me what life is like inside your world
But don't worry, there's no hurry
My impatience knows no fury
So don't worry, there's no hurry
Take your time, tell me if you're ready
Come to me
I will give and receive
All I need is for you to believe
Talk to me
When it feels as though the walls are closing in
Talk to me
Day or night, I understand the shape you're in
But don't worry, there's no hurry
My impatience knows no fury
So don't worry, there's no hurry
Take your time, tell me if you're ready
Come to me I will give and receive
All I need is for you to believe
Come to me I can help you feel free
Take my hand & understand that I believe
