

Hangman

Saga

Listening to the sound of wood being set into place
The rhythm suggesting someone's in a hurry
Soon those footsteps will be coming here to rescue me
All this time in thoughts, it's twice they killing me

Hangman please, no pain
Be quick, I don't wish to feel
What the dream tonight told me

They said there was a fight
I don't recall my even being there
I had too much to drink
They say I brought a gun with me and I used it there

Hangman please, no pain
Be quick, I don't wish to feel
What the dream tonight told me

Lead me down the hall
Now I see the silhouette that waits for me
Black cloak standing tall
Do you know my name, can you feel for me?

Hangman please, no pain
Be quick, I don't wish to feel
What the dream tonight told...
