

No Two Sides

Saga

What do ya say we start a private revolution?
Give it all we've got 'till there isn't much left to give
What do ya say we find a peaceful resolution?
Shake up all the rules find a brand new way to live

Two for the show
My oh my, how we have grown
Two for the show
Think of the seeds we have sown

What do ya say we try & change our situation?
Starting with a walk where the angels fear to tread
What do ya say we think about a new destination?
Start lookin' for another place to find our daily bread

Two for the show
My oh my, how we have grown
Two for the show
Think of the seeds we have sown

So are we gonna take out fears to terms tonight
No fault, no shame, no two sides are the same
'Cause we can't let it end in tears again tonight
No pain, no gain, one last refrain

What do ya say we start a brand new competition?
Be the first on the block with an original point of view
What do ya say we join the latest expedition?
See if we can find something other than a deja vu

Two for the show
My oh my, how we have grown
Two for the show
Think of the seeds we have sown

So are we gonna take out fears to terms tonight
No fault, no shame, no two sides are the same
'Cause we can't let it end in tears again tonight
No pain, no gain, one last refrain
