

Now Is Now

Saga

Running circles in the dark Sharing one world is not enough
Now is, now is, now is, now
Now is, now is, now is, now
If I should fall to rise again
in a place I've never seen I'd do it all over again
will you remember me?
Marching aimless out of time
Words unspoken open wide
Now is, now is, now is, now
Now is, now is, now is, now
If I should fall to rise again
in a place I've never seen
I'd do it all over again
will you remember me?
If I should fall to rise again
in a place I've never seen
I'd do it all over again
will you remember me?
