

Quite a Feeling

Sahara Hotnights

Quite a feeling, quite a relief, quite a mess
Quite a feeling, quite a relief, quite a mess
quite a mess

Someone convinced me of jealousy It's the best compliment I'll ever get So I shouldn't be the sad girl shouldn't but I said I was And who's going to tell who's going to tell this time?

It's a blizzard outside
Don't you dare stay inside

And what of the light boxing in the back Why do I fear the poison I spread out there's no need to swing back coasters, (the bottle of pain/the battle display)
And he's going to fail, he's going to fail this time

It's a blizzard outside
Don't you dare stay inside
It's a blizzard outside
Don't you dare stay inside
