

Fish And Stars II

Said the Whale

Hey girl, whatcha thinking about?
Whatcha thinking about?
Are you thinking about love?

And what if I took you by the hand
To a little place by the rocks and the waves

And where do I know you from, a different life?
Or maybe it's just his one finally getting it right

And this I swear is where I'm meant to be
Out here with you under the stars
Out here with you, the fish, and the stars.
