Chanel

Saigon Kick

If you see me in the pouring rain No, I'm never coming back again For you, my beloved Chanel

Walk along my dear hand in hand No not a tear not a grain of sand For you, my beloved Chanel

Dancin' on the moonlit sky Glancin' in each others' eye Oh, my heart does swell Believe me when I say to you You really ring my bell

Walking in the park the other day My heart skipped as I heard him say For you, my beloved Chanel

Crying, screaming, ranting, raving mad If you were dead, boy would I be glad For you, my beloved Chanel

Dancin' on the moonlit sky Glancin' in each others' eye Oh, my heart does swell Believe me when I say to you Go right to hell

Dancin' on the moonlit sky Glancin' in each others' eye Oh, my heart does swell Believe me when I say to you You really ring my bell

Laughin' as your grave is built Not an ounce of shame or guilt For you, my beloved Chanel

I never cried, I never could All the blame will do no good For you, my beloved Chanel For you, my beloved Chanel For you, my beloved Chanel
