

Memory

Saint Lu

You approach
On tiptoe
Like a melody
But soundlessly
And bitter-sweet,
Almost heavenly

Passing overhead
Filling up my sight, you seem to go but come instead
Hypnotize my heart

Shine for me Memory, my highlight and my gloom
Rising suddenly, then you're gone too soon
Shine for me, Memory, light of a long gone star
Dark but you shine on
Painfully far

I find I am
Immersed again
In your tempting lie
You prove to be
A symphony
On a stream run dry

Passing overhead
Filling up my sight, you seem to go but come instead
Hypnotize my heart

Shine for me Memory, my highlight and my gloom
Rising suddenly, then you're gone too soon
Shine for me, Memory, light of a long gone star
Dark but you shine on
Painfully far

Stay another second
Another day
Lead me on for hours
I know you'll fade away
Stay another second
Another day
I am in your power
If only you would stay

Shine for me memory my highlight and my gloom
Rising suddenly, then you're gone too soon
Shine for me memory, light of a long gone star
Dark but you shine on painfully far
Dark but you shine on painfully far
