

Beaten and bruised,
In a world that is cold and broken.
Can't take the abuse,
There's a weight in the world unspoken.

Don't cross the line,
You wanna go, then fine.
Only tell you one last time,

So walk away, don't feed my hate,
I don't need another enemy.
I'm not afraid to introduce you to my hate.
I don't need another enemy.
I don't need another enemy.

Don't light my fuse,
Check yourself and you won't regret it.
So make your move,
Man to man right here if you let it

Don't cross the line,
You wanna go, then fine.
Only tell you one last time,

So walk away, don't feed my hate,
I don't need another enemy.
I'm not afraid to introduce you to my hate.
I don't need another enemy.
I don't need another enemy.

Don't cross the line,
You wanna go, then fine.
Only tell you one last time,

So walk away, don't feed my hate,
I don't need another enemy.
I'm not afraid to introduce you to my hate.
I don't need another enemy.
I don't need another enemy.

So walk away, don't feed my hate,
I don't need another enemy.
I don't need another enemy.
I don't need another enemy..
