

One Night Only

Saliva

I always wanted to be president, I always wanted to be Superman

I ended up a fuckin' superstar.

I'm better off than either one of them.

I wanna take you to a higher place.

Say all the things that you could never say.

I'll even help you try to make a change.

Before the whole world blows up in your face.

Come inside for a moment.

Come inside for a moment.

I'm the voice inside of you, that says there's nothing you can't do.

If you could open up your eyes and lay your heart out on the line.

I'm the voice inside your head, that brings your mind back from the dead.

I hope that I have served you right, even if only for one night

I'm not religious or fanatical, but I'm a motherfuckin' miracle

You knock me down and I get up again.

So hit the lights out and let the show begin.
