

She Can Sure Hide Crazy

Saliva

You played your way in under my skin
Blinded by my own desire
I guess I'll never learn why I keep getting burned
It's too late to put out the fire

The game is over now
I figured you out

Well I might be a bastard, a classic disaster
But she's some kind of actor
She can sure hide crazy
I fell so deep into her spell
Thought she was an angel
She can sure hide crazy

I fell for ever curve, twisted by her curse
I never saw the psycho coming
You can fake it so good, should live in Hollywood
Where you can be a dime a dozen

The game is over now
I figured you out

Well I might be a bastard, a classic disaster
But she's some kind of actor
She can sure hide crazy
I fell so deep into her spell
Thought she was an angel
She can sure hide crazy

She's the devil in disguise
And now I realize

Well I might be a bastard, a classic disaster
But she's some kind of actor
She can sure hide crazy
I fell so deep into her spell
Thought she was an angel
She can sure hide crazy

She can sure hide crazy
She can sure hide crazy
