

Break Through The Rock

Sally Oldfield

R:

Her life is gonna break thro' the rock!
Her light is gonna break thro' the dark
We're gonna light a fire from this tiny spark
Her love is gonna break thro' every heart!
Her life is gonna break thro' the rock!
Her light is gonna break thro' the dark
We're gonna find water from the rock
Her love is gonna break through every heart!

All across the earth I feel it,
In voices of many lands I hear it,
I hear a great song of freedom calling,
The walls that held us in are falling,
High upon this mountainside I can see forever
By the light of a million stars!
