

Love is everywhere

Sally Oldfield

I feel it in the burning sun that's shining in the wind.
I feel it in your flashing eyes like summer lightning,
And all across the hillside there's thunder in the air!
Love is everywhere! Love is everywhere!
Love is everywhere! Love is everywhere!
Everywhere!

In the space of the dark still night
Every heart is beating!
Can you hear? It's loud and clear,
Sending out a sweet love greeting!
And all across the hillside there's thunder in the air!
Love is everywhere! Love is everywhere!
Love is everywhere! Love is everywhere!
Everywhere!

I feel it in the unfolding of every living thing;
To the touch of the silent sun they are opening!
And all across the hillside there's thunder in the air!
Love is everywhere! Love is everywhere!
Love is everywhere! Love is everywhere!
Everywhere!
