

Love of a lifetime

Sally Oldfield

The dawn wind is blowing, the night is nearly gone
I watch you softly sleeping, a child in the sun
I just want to wake you, tell you what I'm feeling

This is the love of a lifetime,
It's like clear, rushing water,
Please don't go! The nightingale's still singing in my soul

This is the love of a lifetime,
It's like clear, rushing water,
Want you to know you are with me everywhere I go.

I want to meet you in the summer,
Want to walk on golden sands,
Touching eyes, touching souls, touching of hands,
we make ...

This is the love of a lifetime,
It's like clear, rushing water,
Please don't go! The nightingale is singing in my soul

This is the love of a lifetime,
It's like clear, rushing water,
Want you to know you are with me everywhere I go.

This is the love of a lifetime,
It's like clear, rushing water,
Want you to know you are with me everywhere I go.

This is the love of a lifetime,
It's like clear, rushing water,
Please don't go! The nightingale is singing in my soul
