

Three Rings

Sally Oldfield

R:

Three rings and a sword for the ancient kings under the starlight Three rings and the sword
that Merlin brings under the starlight
Three rings and a sword for the ancient kings

You feel the mark of cain that speaks your name
And it's burning on your brow
But the shaman calls from deep in your soul
And he's telling you how
To find the deepest wound that you have borne
It's the gift you bring
It's the secret song that only you can sing

R:

You see the wanton blood that's spilled
Upon the ancient trail
As it leads you back to the deeps of time
Where you can lift the veil
To find the secret laws of the universe
That open to your eyes
As you look within beyond the reach of sin
To magnify the light!

R:

Three rings and the sword that Merlin brings Clearing the hidden path across the night
World within world the weaver spins
Immaculate reflections of the light
Captured in a star-glass, deep within my eyes
From out of chaos comes the force
The fearless, blinding blue
Of life and love and endless light
The spirit that is you!

Makers of all things fair under the sky
Bearers of the golden flame that never dies
Three rings and a sword for the ancient kings

Three rings and the sword
that Merlin brings under the starlight
Under the darkest night...
Three rings and a sword for the ancient kings
