

Water Bearer

Sally Oldfield

Water Bearer! Water bearing one!
Water bearing one! Water bearing one!

I was born under the sign of the sun
Water bearer! Water bearing one!
My mama was young and the skies were rocking
On the day that I first saw the light
Water bearer! Water bearing man!
With the dusty heart of a beggar woman
I'm following you by moonlight
Water-bearer! Water-bearing man!
Now the rain's on fire through the redwood trees
I can feel your blood flowing in me.
Water-bearer! Water-bearing man!
Water-bearer! Water-bearing man!
Water-bearer! Water-bearing man!

Water-bearer! Water-bearing one!

Feel like the dry Sahara sand
She cry for rain to cool the land
Cool the flame thats burning me!
Cool the flame thats burning me!
Oh! Water bearer! Water bearing one!

It's dark on the mountain waiting for the sun,
The devil is sleeping and the lord of the light is waking
The dawn is slowly breaking
Hella Kiellessa niovya lo
He ana hella kielleya niova nya
