

See This Evil

Sam Brown

See this evil in my eye
I refuse to deny it
It must be something you don't like
But I refuse to deny it.

It's only ever counterproductive
When you're nice a pie all of the time,
Then you end up killing someone dead
Become sugar sweet as ice cream
Trying to hide it
I refuse to deny it

See this evil in my eye
I refuse to deny it
It must be something you don't like
But I refuse to deny it.

Good intentions do not create honesty,
Forethought, calculation and acceptance of ability to sleaze,
I'm more at home with these,
With a handful of humility
And love thrown in for the balance please.
I refuse to deny it.

See this evil in my eye
I refuse to deny it
It must be something you don't like
But I refuse to deny it.
