

The Key

Sam Brown

I was gonna be a brain surgeon, but I never really bothered
So I spend all my days and nights just dreaming
Finally I visualized that only I can change it
This ambling road to nowhere and realize my dreams

Can you see what you want
Can you picture it there
Can you pull it in to shape and mould it

We all hold the key, if only we could see
Dreams are for embracing
Life is a hill, there's no use standing still
It's there for you, just take it

Now I've opened up the door to all my aspirations
And I can be anything I want to be
A fighter pilot, study the law
Or ever harder be a mother
I've been holding myself back subconsciously

I can see what I want
I can picture it there
I can pull it into shape and mould it

We all hold the key, if only we could see
Dreams are for embracing
Life is a hill, there's no use standing still
It's there for you, just take it

Life's what you want it to be
Look around take in what you see
Everything's waiting for you
Look inside, you know that it's true

We all hold the key, if only we could see
Dreams are for embracing
Life is a hill, there's no use standing still
It's there for you, just take it
Dreams are for embracing
It's there for you, so take it
