

Whisper

Sam Brown

You woke me up in the middle of my life
And you shook me gently to make sure I was alive
You'd been watching and waiting, so patiently wise
Knowing that I knew I was living a lie

Whisper in my ear
Oh my darling
You're so dear to me
Reach out, I'll be here
Oh my darling
I will never leave
For as long as there's breath in my body
I will never leave

We've travelled these times down a rough beaten track
In our rusty old banger and I've never looked back
Our heads have been battered and our spirits have been worn
But I've never been happier and to be your wife I've sworn

Whisper in my ear
Oh my darling
You're so dear to me
Reach out, I'll be here
Oh my darling
I will never leave
For as long as there's breath in my body
I will never leave

I will never leave
I will always be here
