There'll Be No Second Time

Sam Cooke

You done me wrong I tried to be kind baby 'cause you told me you were mine o mine But you walked out and left me behind So there'll be no second time

I was a fool to give my love Cause you swore you'd love me by the stars above But you walked out and left me behind So there'll be no second time

Go on laugh and have your fun Let the good times keep rollin' on There'll come a day when you have to pay for everything that you have done

You can cry, you can rave Try to show you love me in a million ways But you walked out and left me behind So there'll be no second time

Go on laugh and have some fun Let the good times keep rollin' on There'll come a day when you have to pay for everything that you have done

Listen to me You can cry, you can rave Try to show you love me in a million ways But you walked out and left me behind So there'll be no second time

There certainly will be no second time
