An American Draft Dodger In Thunder Bay

Sam Roberts

He was born in a small town And he was given every reason to stay Hallelujah, Mississippi Postcard living no sign of decay

Till Vietnam moved next door
Then Hallelujah was off to war
In the dream he couldn't finish the deed
He didn't smoke any weed so why leave?

Going where I can't be found And I won't be coming 'round

His father, Tom, said, "You better sign on You'd better take up your gun and fight I got nothing against them Viet Cong What did they do so wrong and why am I right?"

He's on his way to Thunder Bay Crossed the border late at night And it was high stakes till he saw the Great Lakes And he felt the cold wind bite

Going where I can't be found And I won't be coming 'round

No, I'm an American on the Canadian shield And I'm putting down roots in your frozen fields It gets cold but you feel so good To be a stranger in town and you're understood

Missing his home He would wake up in a cold sweat And pick up the phone and hope That Tom found a way to forget

He's been teaching at the high school, learning the game In Thunder Bay we're all the same
He's one of us, he has our trust
But there's no going back once the line is crossed

I'm an American on the Canadian shield And I'm putting down roots in your frozen fields It gets cold but you feel so good To be a stranger in town and you're understood

You can't ask what you're asking me to do And I hope you understand when I refuse I'm going North with my point of view And I'm never gonna think the same as you

And I'm where I can't be found And I won't be coming 'round

No, I'm an American on the Canadian shield And I'm putting down roots in your frozen fields It gets cold but you feel so good to be a stranger in town And you're understood
