

I Feel You

Sam Roberts

I love this world
Took everything, one more
Every flow and steady beat
No surrender no retreat
I love this world
Remember who you fighting for
Never get what you can't afford
I feel you and that's for sure
(repeat)

Been walking straight, been walking narrow
Shot through the eye by cupid's arrow
Don't know if I've seen the real you
But I feel you, yeah I feel you

Chaos rains in Atlantis roaming the seas
Like some praying mantis she had eyes for me
Your waiting for someone to reveal you
But I feel you, yeah I feel you

All in love and love is war
Take everything it wants more
All in love and love is war
Remember who you fighting for

Now you spurred my advances like some beggar on fire
Say you're not taking chances, I'm a fool and a liar
You think this fall will conceal you
But I feel you yeah I feel you

Last night I dreamt
..... beg for money (?)
Said my Achilles heel was showing
But I didn't find it funny
You said, beware those that might steal from you
But i feel you yeah I feel you

All in love and love is war
Take everything it wants more
All in love and love is war
Remember who you fighting for

I give you anything you want
No more pretending no more
It's all or nothing this is war

All in love and love is war
Take everything it wants more
All in love and love is war
Remember who you fighting for
All in love and love is war
Take everything it wants more
Don't go hiding anymore
Remember who you fighting for
