

The Band Vs. The World

Sam Roberts

It came in a vision, and a vision don't lie
No tears for my heaven his better shivers ran dry*
No rain on the horizon, no rain behind
No change in the seasons, no end in sight.

CHORUS

No one is free, no, no
No one is free, no, no
'Cept all of us are free...

Sleep the great divider, creeps in with a spider
You're fading like a fighter throwing punches at the mirror.

CHORUS

Said no one is free, no, no
No one is free, no, no
'Cept all of us are free, yeah all of us are free.
All the kids on the street, no, no
Going wild in the heat
You gotta let them go, let them go
The less you know, the more you grow

Ooh, here comes the rain
Let it cool your anger, let it ease the pain
Let it break the fever, and relieve the strain
Let it be the teacher, river's running again

CHORUS:

'Cuz no one is free, no, no
No one is free, no, no
'Cept all of us are free, yeah all of us are free
And all the kids on the street, lord no
Going wild in the heat
You gotta let them go, let them go
The more you know, the less you grow
