I'm a pilgrim like you, I was only passin' through You'll never know my name, you'll never walk in my shoes I've been no use to my friends, I've been no use to myself Now I'm lookin' for proof that I ain't someone else

I was too afraid to read the newspaper Workin' in the basement of a skyscraper That's why I roll and you'll never know my name Oh, no

I'm not here to feel the bones of some forgotten saint
I know who I am and I know who you ain't
Spent fifteen days in solitary confinement, diggin' a hole in the wal

There's no escape, they said you need realignment
Now you're prayin' for help but they don't hear you call

I was too afraid to read the newspaper Workin' in the basement of a skyscraper That's why I roll and you'll never know my name Oh, no

Destination, I don't care
I know I'll get there when I'm there
There's only one thing on my mind
I've got more troubles than a diamond's got shine

My shoes have kicked up dust from here to somewhere else Is this wanderlust or runnin' from myself?

My neck was in the noose but now I've been cut loose And put out to graze in delicate pastures

Now I'm waitin' for someone to put me to use

I hope it's clear as crystal, that the man with the pistol Is callin' all the shots these days, now I'll be on my way, oh The self fulfillin' prophets, they been linin' their pockets And tellin' me that it's alright but I just don't buy it Oh, no

Destination, I don't care
I know I'll get there when I'm there
There's only one thing on my mind
I've got more troubles than a diamond's got shine

Destination, I don't care
I know I'll get there when I'm there
There's only one thing on my mind
I've got more troubles than a diamond's got shine
