

I Wanna Bone My T.A.

Sam Tsui

What to say everyday
When she looks at me
With a question in class
But I'm staring at her...face

And I guess she'll never see
That when my eyes look at hers
There's a thought that occurs
And it's taking control over me

I wanna bone my T.A.
I wanna bang her up against the wall
I wanna bone my T.A.
Beauty and Brains, baby she's got it all

I'll have her once against the chalkboard
And again on her desk
We'll round base 2 and base 3 simultaneously
As I'm thinking what's gonna to be next

I wanna bone my T.A.
I wanna bang her up against the wall
I wanna bone my T.A.
Beauty and Brains, baby she's got it all
