

Celebration of the Fourth

Samael

Oh purificator fire, that burns in me
Rekindle my courage, gife me your force
Blow, northerly wind, come, wind of death
Storms, hurricanes, be at my side
By water, by air, by fire, by earth
Oh purificator water, essence of life
Mirror of time, drown the lies
Earth, mother's man
Dissembowelled by your sons
From your blood of fire
Will rise the chaos
By water, by air
By fire, by earth
