

I Give Myself To You

Samantha Fox

I was sure
Didn't want me

I was sure I was sure
You didn't want me anymore
What was I supposed to do, supposed to do

I give myself to you
I give myself to you
I give myself to you

I wanted you, I needed you
To make me feel more safe and sound
The loneliness I leave behind
Now I know you're still around

I was sure I was sure
You didn't want me anymore
What was I supposed to do, supposed to do

I give myself to you
I give myself to you
I give myself to you

I was down and I was out
It always felt the same to me
A whole new place a night and day
All it took for you to stay

I was sure I was sure
You didn't want me anymore
What was I supposed to do, supposed to do

I give myself to you
I give myself to you
I give myself to you

Ahh
I was sure
Didn't want me

Give myself to you

I was sure I was sure
You didn't want me anymore
What was I supposed to do, supposed to do

I give myself to you
I give myself to you
I give myself to you

I give myself to you
I give myself to you
I give myself to you
