

Move Me

Samantha Fox

Like poetry in motion
Affecting my emotion
It's a physical attraction
Demanding my attention

You make me feel - I belong
You make me feel - you move me

You move me
Feels like the first time, I'm falling in love
Feels like the first time, and I won't let you go
Move me

Like the sunrise in the morning
Its destiny, it's calling
Now I'm open to the feeling
I'm defenseless, and I'm falling

Move me
Move me

It's a physical attraction
Demanding my attention

Like the sunshine in the morning
Like the moon and the star light

You move me

Oh, how you move me
You make me happy
How you love me
Make me happy
