

Deep Surprise

Samantha James

Take me on a ride inside your heart tonight
Just you and me,
Take me to live inside the truth.

Sugar, I wanna taste the way you feel inside
All through the night
Forget about the time just close your eyes

Sugar, always though
My heart, it breaks, baby
Oh, let me be the one to come alive
Let me just be such a deep surprise

As the world you know begins to cry
Some might just let it be
If you wanna grow it all must die

Sugar, we can come alive inside your dreams tonight
Live to believe
You are the only one for me

Sugar, always though
My heart, it breaks, baby
Oh, let me be the one to come alive
Let me just be such a deep surprise
