

Veil

Samantha James

There's no change in yesterday.
Nobody can choose the ones they love and then slip away.
Free the burdens from your soul;
Watching the world fall at your feet as you let go.

We can't lead the way for all to discover
If we try to find a way to love one another.
Lift this veil from upon my eyes so I can see
That this world we live in is just a stepping stone for us to reach
Love resides in you and in me
Let's be one
one
one...

Love is unconditional;
Know that its there for you whenever your alone.
Free the child's in your soul;
Watching you celebrate the life you've always known.

We can't lead the way for all to discover
If we try to find a way to love one another.
Lift this veil from upon my eyes so I can see
That this world we live in is just a stepping stone
for us to reach.
Love resides in you and in me
Let's be one
one
one

Yea, Yea

The light will shine (the light will shine)
Its holding you its holding me
The light will shine (the light will shine)
Its holding you its holding me
The light will shine (the light will shine)
Its holding you its holding me
The light will shine (the light will shine)
shine
shine

Lift this veil from upon my eyes so I can see
That this world we live in is just a stepping stone
for us to reach.
Love resides in you and in me
Let's be one
one
one

The light will shine (the light will shine)
Its holding you its holding me
The light will shine (the light will shine)
Its holding you holding me
Its holding me
Its holding me
Its holding me
