

Only Just Begun

Samantha Mumba

Can we be 5 years-old forever? Forever
Can we be 5 years-old forever? Forever

This is a song to the five year-old me
Little girl weren't you so pretty?
Big heart, bigger than your worries
So sure of what your life would be

Yeah, you came and you saw
And you broke down the walls
Yeah, you came and you saw
And you lost it all

Sometimes you'll win, sometimes you'll lose
Sometimes you'll break, sometimes you'll bruise
Sometimes you'll give the best you got
Still you don't care what you want

As I lay me down to sleep
I hear a little voice in me
Say we've only just begun
Say we've only just begun

Years pass, tears cried
And the smiles wash them away
Bittersweet you've become
You can run but can't escape

And even though your rainbow is fading
Nothing in this world ever changes
You can either love it or hate it
And you can either give it or take it

Sometimes you'll win, sometimes you'll lose
Sometimes you'll break, sometimes you'll bruise
Sometimes you'll give the best you got
Still you don't care what you want

As I lay me down to sleep
I hear a little voice in me
Say we've only just begun
Say we've only just begun

Can we be 5 years-old forever? Forever
Can we be 5 years-old forever? Forever

Sometimes you'll win, sometimes you'll lose
Sometimes you'll break, sometimes you'll bruise
Sometimes you'll give the best you got
Still you don't care what you want

As I lay me down to sleep
I hear a little voice in me
Say we've only just begun
Say we've only just begun

Say we've only just begun

Say we've only just begun
