

Let Me Apologize

Sámer Issa

Please, let me apologize. I know
I was wrong.
I wanna say "I'm sorry,"
now that you're gone.

Don't know where you are tonight,
Don't know if I'll ever have the chance to say,
"Forgive me now,"
now, when you're gone away, now,
when I need your love

Let me apologize, let me tell you just once more.
I know it's the same, sad story
I told you so many times before.

How could I have been so blind?
I was such a fool to let you go,
and now I know.
Now that you've gone away, now
when I need your love.
Now when I need your love.
Now when I need your love.
