

Sister

Sámer Issa

Baby, baby, baby,
you know I love you so but there's one thing I have to say before I let you go.

I know you'll say I'm crazy,
behaving kind of low,
But I'd like to bone your sister.
And this you need to know.

Ref : I love your sister,
she's mine.
I love your sister,
she's mine.

I felt it from the first time
I called you on the phone.
This lovely voice that spoke to me,
to say you weren't home.

Then you introduced us
at the mall with her 3 kids.
I felt that I should leave you then,
truth is,
I almost did.

She reminds me of Madonna in her prime,
A dirty blonde and sexy
Like a virgin past her time.

I want to bone your sister and this I say is true.
Last night when we were making love.
I dreamed that she was you.

Your sister, your sister,
I've got to have your sister.

Your sister, big sister,
I'm dying, dying to kiss her.

Your sister, your sister,
I really want your sister.

Your sister, big sister,
I'm dying, dying...
She's mine.
