

Do You Want to Be Loved

Samiam

I've tried to tell you how I'm feeling
But something's always lost along the way
From my heart to your mind it never comes out right
You don't want to hear it anyway

Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved

Always trying to make sure
You never get any more than you deserve
And you won't settle for less
Then less than second best
You're never disappointed that way

Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved

Who would someone who'd want someone like you
Who would someone who'd want someone like you
Who would someone who'd want someone like you
Who would someone who'd want someone like you

Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved
Do you want to be loved

Who would someone who'd want someone like you
Who would someone who'd want someone like you
Who would someone who'd want someone like you
Who would someone who'd want someone like you
