How Would You Know

Samiam

Of course I understand the way he feels, I feel the same And you should know you're the one who made me feel that way

The assorted kinds of hell that you have put me through Have made me an expert of feeling like a fool

Why would trouble like you ever be concerned Talking about a body being mistreated Coming from you it sounds absurd How would you know how it feels?

Reminding me of times you won't let me forget
I see you're getting excited, keep it up and you're gonna regret it
