

Nothing New

Samiam

so far ahead of us all, you got boy george on your wall just admit it, you watch too much t.v., you went to your prom and every year you went to summer camp my girlfriend told me you liked it too i've seen you dancing with the hippies in peoples park wearing a tie-died skirt, without any shoes you're nothing new that's all (4x) i really don't care when you see me on the street i know i make you sick cause we're all on the outside i guess that means you're in so just pretend that you don't know me what would your real friends say just keep on walking, talking about me, behind my back i've only got one thing to say
