

Tell Me a Story

Samiam

So now I know you have to say what's on your little mind
And I always have to hear from someone else
All your stupid lies come on now and look at me you'll see I'm okay
It's story time now time for you to show your shallow existence

It doesn't add up too much your junior insecurity
Now I see that you're afraid of me
