

My Own Way

Sammie

Oh Oh Oh Woo!
Wooo-oooh. woo-ohh Woo-oooh woo-oh.
Woo-oooh woo-oooh, woo-oooh, woo-oooh, woo-oooh.
Yeah, Ooooh no. Its time I spread my wings and fly, babe.

Dear mama, this goes out to you
I know its hard for you to accept what it is I do
But its you who said son follow your dreams.
Sky's the limit, the music isnt all its cracked up to be.
And I know that its hard to let go (yeah)
But its time that I shine and I know, that its this music that influenced me to keep on going fluently,
You don't know what it do to me.
I love you mama watch your boy shine.

Were at the crossroads, took me as far as as you can go.
Now its time for me to grow up and be a man so.
(now) Imma spread my wings and fly this dont mean that its good bye.
But I gotta find, gotta find my own way now (please understand) gotta find my own way now (im finally a man) gotta find my own way now (i know its hurting you so) gotta find my own way now (you gotta learn to let me go) gotta find my own way

And I pray dear God, please let there come a day I can support
my family and everything will be okay
Here I pray dear God,
Let me get up out this hood so brother and sister can live good and everything will be okay.
And I know that its hard to let go (yeah)
But its time that I shine and I know, that its this music that influenced me to keep on going fluently,
You don't know what it do to me.
I love you mama watch your boy shine.

Everything I do I owe it all to you.
Without your love and care what would I do
Can't imagine my life without you
Mama, Mama, Mama, Mama
