

You Are

Sammie

Baby girl, I love you and I felt the need to say it
There's some times we fuss and fight and, baby girl, I hate it
You're my better half and you're sure appreciated
Never thought I'd settle down, without you, girl, I'm naked, maybe

Maybe it's your smile, girl
Maybe it's your street
Maybe it's that home-cooked loving
Bringing me home to eat
Maybe it's the way you touch me
The way you bring that heat
I don't know what it is about what you do when you do what you do
But you are

You're the only one (that makes me)
You're the only one (that makes me)
You're the only one that makes me feel like I do
You're the only one (you're the only one)
You're the only one (you're the only one)
You're the only one (no, no, no one can do what you do)

I love it when you're sleeping, baby girl, you're like an angel
I explore your body from each and every angle
Thinking to myself, I am so incomplete without you
You complete my puzzle and I'm so blessed just to have you, maybe

Maybe it's your smile, girl
Maybe it's your street
Maybe it's that home-cooked loving
Bringing me home to eat
Maybe it's the way you touch me
The way you bring that heat
I don't know what it is about what you do when you do what you do
But you are

You're the only one (that makes me)
You're the only one (that makes me)
You're the only one that makes me feel like I do
You're the only one (you're the only one)
You're the only one (you're the only one)
You're the only one (no, no, no one can do what you do)

You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my (oh, baby) (girl)
You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my (baby girl, know that you are)

Never in my life felt this before
You're all I want and so much more
Didn't know just what love could be
Until it all came down on me

Never in my life felt this before
You're all I want and so much more
Didn't know just what love could be

Until it all came down on me

You're the only one (that makes me)
You're the only one (that makes me)
You're the only one that makes me feel like I do
You're the only one (you're the only one)
You're the only one (you're the only one)
You're the only one (no, no, no one can do what you do)

You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my (oh, baby) (girl)
You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my (baby girl, know that you are)

Never in my life felt this before
You're all I want and so much more
Didn't know just what love could be
Until it all came down on me

Never in my life felt this before
You're all I want and so much more
Didn't know just what love could be
Until it all came down on me

You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my

You are my
You are my
You are my
