Only One

O-Only one O-Only one...o-one O-Only one

You were so out of my league Like I was lost for words I couldn't even begin to speak right Not to mention each night Couldn't seem to spark that conversation I kept stalling out just waiting At the green light (g-g-g-green light) Push the clutch and finally broke the damn ice Would have done it sooner had I knew you were intrigued by me Had no idea kept making these excuses Now you're mine and I'm gon' prove it I'm gon' prove it, I'm gon' prove it

Just had to say you're the only one I can't deny it or stall any longer Girl you have done the impossible Can't even lie you're the only only only one Ohh Girl you're the only one Ohh Ohh Girl you're the only one Ohh Girl you're the only only only one

Girl, you would so be on that fly shit And I can't even tell you or explain how wide my eyes get When you walk in the room it's Hard to keep a friendly conversation Cuz everyone's stuck on my chick My my my my my my chick Everyone look at my chick She got the touch and moves to make me lose it When we grinding She make the room light up but that's the last thing on her mind Dude told me this would happen I just thought that he was lying

Just had to say you're the only one I can't deny it or stall any longer Girl you have done the impossible Can't even lie you're the only only only one Ohhhhh Girl you're the only one Ohhhhh Girl you're the only one Ohhhhh Girl you're the only only one
