

Growing Up

Sammy Hagar

Oh, yeah

See all the kids on the side street
Hangin' 'round in their cars
They're out makin' memories, yeah

See the girls in their summer clothes
All the boys all rough and tough
They just can't get enough, oh no

They're just growing up
And they can't get around it
They're just growing up, face the fact
I'm so glad that I found out I must be growing up, uh

I never thought I'd want to settle down
But her love just gets to me
Kinda feels like the real thing, yeah

I'm feeling guilty about my friends
Oh, they all say how I've been changing
I'm just bored 'cause this old town
It's got me down, oh, yeah

I'm just growing up
Uh! I can't get around it, no
Growing up, face the fact
I'm so glad that I found out I must be growing up

Feels like I'm winding down or breaking loose
I've put together a new plan, I'm stickin' to it
At what point does this boy become a man

I'm just growing up
No, I can't get around it
Guess I'm growing up, face the fact
I'm so glad that I found out, I must be... I'm just

Growing up, yeah
We just can't get around it, oh no
Growing up, face the fact
Yeah, I'm glad that I found out I must be g-g-g

Growing up, yeah
No, you can't get around it, no
Growing up, face the fact
I'm so glad that I found out I must be growing up
