

In The Room

Sammy Hagar

No windows, no doors
How'd I get in?
There's no way out once you've come in

It's so clear, so cold
You're body stings
You start to get up as a bell rings

Everything makes sense
Like some crazy dream
I've been caught in the room

That moment of sleep
When you think you're awake
That threshold of pain you know you can't take

You question yourself
"Hey, where have I been?"
Well, I've been caught in the room

(Caught in the room, ahh)
(Caught in the room)
(Caught in the room, ahh)
(Caught in the room)

Oh

Always alone
There's people outside
All feelers of contact now is denied

(Caught in the room, ahh)
(Caught in the room)
(Caught in the room, ahh)
(Caught in the room)

(Caught in the room, ahh)
(Caught in the room)
(Caught in the room)

(Caught in the room, ahh)
(Caught in the room)
