

Today, love takes on a whole new meaning
In a face I know I've seen somewhere before, oh yeah
And somehow the mystery is over, yet just begun
To see the most perfect thing
Together, we've ever done

Oh, so what do we call this miracle we've made?
And how can I find one word to say it? Oh yeah
When all I'm feeling here and now is love
So that will always be you, Kama

Today, I just wrote a song about you
And the words, they flow just like the air I breathe, oh yeah
The closest I've ever been to truly understanding
The closest we'll ever be
To the meaning of life so sacred

Oh, so what do we call this miracle we've made?
And how can I find one word to say it? Oh yeah
When all I'm feeling here and now is love
So that will always be you, Kama

And every language has a word
But the meaning is always the same
Oh, love is all you've got to start out in the world
And love is all that remains, oh yeah

Oh yeah, so what do we call this miracle we've made?
And how can I find one word to say it? Oh yeah
When all I'm feeling here and now is love
So that will always be you, Kama

Oh yeah (What do we call this miracle?)
(How can I find one word to say it?)
(When all I'm feeling here and now is love)
Kama
