

Standin' At The Same Old Crossroads

Sammy Hagar

Yeah

Oh, it looked so easy, baby

Out there on your own, woah

Mmm, it sure looked so easy

Out there on my own, woah

Ain't it funny how the world looks

When you're, when you're almost grown

Almost grown, almost grown

Don't worry about nothin'

You got nothin' to lose, oh no

Always want things to stay that easy, baby

Depending on the road you choose

The road you choose, the road you choose

Standin' at the crossroads

Standin' at the crossroads, baby

Same old crossroads

Same old crossroads, yeah

Mmm
