What They Gonna Say Now

Sammy Hagar

People keep tellin' me "Better save your money, baby Save it for a rainy day." And I say, let it rain 'cause It sure ain't money, babe Cause me to say what I say I been criticized For the way I look The way I play, the way I sing Say what cha want From way down there 'Cause up here it's got a bullshit ring I'm not concerned (not concerned) What I read (what I read) What I hear What the future holds I take my chances (I take my chances) Blow by blow (Blow by blow) Because the truth has yet to be told Well, I just don't know What they gonna say now Watching these politicians Swimmin' in a sea of sharks One of 'em's got blood on his hands Everyone scrambles Just to save his own ass And the opposition moves in and makes demands A full investigation Maybe a resignation No, no matter what the cost It's not for the country, no Two terms in a row The democrats have lost Well, I'm not concerened (not concerned) What I see (What I see) What I hear It's all bought and sold I just believe (Just believe) What I wanna believe (What I wanna believe) Because the truth is yet to be told Well, I just don't know

What they gonna say now, uh What they gonna say now, well

```
We'll pay tomorrow for the power today
We'll run you down if you stand in our way
Wow
Over here, 'cause I'm not concerned (not concerned)
What I hear (What I hear)
What I read
It's all bought and sold
I just believe (Just believe)
What I wanna believe (What I wanna believe)
Because the truth is yet to be told
Well, I just don't know
What they gonna say now
What they gonna say now
What they gonna say now, now, now, now, now, now
What they gonna say now, oh
(What they gonna say now)
What they gonna say now
(What they gonna say now)
(What they gonna say now)
(What they gonna say now)
```
