

I say, "oh, you're waiting on a rainstar"
To find out, to find out where you are
Some things just go, leave those things
[?] and blinded by what they say

Sometimes we joke about it
Most times we walk around it
It can be self-confining
[?] and against your will

I don't know what to say and
I kinda want that playin'
I guess my [?] keeps strayin'
These purple fears will be secluded by some [?] one day

I say, "oh, you're waiting on a rainstar"
To find out, to find out where you are
Some things just go, leave those things
[?] and blinded by what they say
