

Take Me Inside

Sampha

Does he still make your blood rush?
These days I'm just not sure how to feel
Does he still make you run wild?
Sadness, and your lips were sealed
As if you didn't care and your love was gone
Our love was lost
Calm before the storm
I don't care if you take me inside
You can't be what you want everytime
And I know it's hard to find the mind to say you do

You're free
You're free, you're free, you're free
You're free enough to find your fear
And you're so free enough to hide from me
And I seek
I seek, I seek, I seek
I seek for something I can't see
And maybe we were meant to be
And maybe this is all a dream
