

Metaphors

San Cisco

I'll be waiting out here
Waiting at your door
If you want it
I could try and get you little little more

I'll break a promise
That I made to you yesterday
I'll never hide from you
Won't ever try to run a run away

I wrote a letter when I met her
And tore out the page
I threw it in a box and
Hid it somewhere far far away

You tell me secrets
And you tell me that you want some more
It's not up to me
To help you try and settle settle scores

I could take you out in the afternoon
Dodge the sharks as we swim to the pontoon
I know it's a metaphor
I know we're still on the shore

Light a fire in our lifeboat
Just to keep warm but we won't stay afloat
I know it's a metaphor
I know we're still on the shore

You sit sad at home
Expecting that I'll drive you round
I came to pick you up
So you can try and let me let me down

You're so anoying how you hate
And put yourself in pain
It's dissapionting casue it's just a made up little little game

I could take you out in the afternoon
Dodge the sharks as we swim to the pontoon
I know it's a metaphor
I know we're still on the shore

Light a fire in our lifeboat
Just to keep warm but we won't stay afloat
I know it's a metaphor
I know we're still on the shore
