

Wash It All Away

San Cisco

You had a rough week
You left a boy because he cheats
You stay up late and drink yourself into a daze
You blame yourself, if you only had a bit more wealth
You'd go on a holiday, into the beach

Wash it away, away, away
Wash it all away, away, away
Wash it all away

Tell me is it love or lust
Be honest, be honest
Cause I'm losin' your trust
You promised, you promised
Tell me is it love or lust
Cause I'm losin' your trust
So get on- well you're off it- ow

He misses your touch
What a great excuse for falling in love
If he'll try hard enough
Eventually you're gonna crush
He's never come clean
It's not good for your self esteem
He'll do it again, it'll probably be with your bestfriend

All well, all well
It'll probably be with your bestfriend
All well, all well
It'll probably be with your bestfriend

Tell me is it love or lust
Be honest, be honest
Cause I'm losin' your trust
You promised, yeah you promised
Tell me is it love or lust
Cause I'm losin' your trust
So get on- well you're off it- ow
