

Oh Darling

San Fermin

Oh, darling, I've been so miserable
I can't describe
Oh, darling, don't be difficult
I can't abide
Oh, darling, fighting's so miserable
A lover's lie
Oh, darling, don't be radical
I can't abide

When you're awful low
And your heart is gone to sea
Leave your lonely here
With me
When you're awful low
Abide with me

Oh, darling, I've been so miserable
I can't describe
Oh, darling, don't be fanciful
I can't abide
Oh, darling fighting's so miserable
A lover's lie
Oh, darling, don't be difficult
I can't abide
Oh, darling, I've been so miserable
I can't describe
Oh, darling, don't be radical
I can't abide

When you're awful low
And your friends are off alone
I'll be waiting here
Believe

When you're awful low
Abide with me

When your friends are off alone
When your heart is gone
To sea
When you're awful low
